Location

Jimbaran lies on the western side of Bali's narrow isthmus that curves from the airport to a bushy headland that's home to the Four Seasons Resort. In spite of hotel developments Jimbaran beach remains unspoilt and tranquil and its sands soft and golden. The calm water of the bay, protected by unbroken coral reef, is safe for swimming.

Things to do

- Experienced surfers head to The Bukit Peninsular for its renowned surf breaks at Uluwatu, Dreamland, Padang-Padang, Impossibles and Suluban.
- Soar above the spectacular southern coastline of Bali on a paraglider. Paragliding courses, tandem and solo flights are available.
- Perched on a cliff 70m above the roaring Indian ocean, Uluwatu Temple - especially at sunset - is a sight not to be missed.
- Tee off on the splendid 18-hole Bali Golf and Country Club golf course at Nusa Dua, one of the best courses on the island.
- The long, clean white sands Nusa Dua Beach are great for swimming (safe for kids) and the place to go for all sorts of nautical activities, including jet skiing and wind surfing.
- The Bali Collection at Nusa Dua offers hassle-free shopping. Fashion, arts and crafts, departments stores, designer boutiques and even a supermarket are all here. Tourist markets near Mengiat Beach and the Melia Bali resort supply plenty of souvenirs. Otherwise, head to the many boutiques of Seminyak and Kuta.
